Save the Date: The Friends of the Library Fall Festival & Book Sale is back!

Saturday, September 25th from 10am-3pm.

Rain Date: Sunday, September 26th from 11am-4pm

The Friends of the Secaucus Public Library Fall Festival & Book Sale promises to be a great opportunity for our community to celebrate the start of autumn with food, music, games and raffles, shopping opportunities, and, of course, books! This event serves as our primary fundraiser for 2021, as well as our first major in-person fundraiser in nearly two years. Funds raised by the Friends support such programs as our library's Museum Pass Lending Program, WiFi Hotspot Lending Initiative, Library Nights in the Park, Summer Reading Programs, Independent Film Discussion Series, and One World Multicultural Celebrations, as well as annual scholarships for local students. Throughout the pandemic, the Friends also sponsored virtual workshops, take-home crafts, outdoor concerts, and in-house video productions to help us serve our community in a variety of ways. As we reopen and resume in-person workshops, events and programs, the support given to the library by the Friends organization is more important than ever.

We need everyone's help to achieve our fundraising goals! We are asking our family of Secaucus businesses and organizations to be official Event Sponsors by making a tax-deductible donation (EIN: 22-382 2481; NJ Charities Registration: CH-2595100) by Friday, August 27th. Monetary donations as well as in-kind donations such as gift certificates, gift cards, gift baskets or items for our raffle tables are all deeply appreciated. All donations will be acknowledged in printed materials at the Fall Festival itself and on our website.

You can become an event sponsor or in-kind donor by completing the attached form. We are also happy to accept online donations through our website: www.secaucuslibrary.org/friends-of-the-library For more information, please contact Library Director Jenifer May at (201)330-2083 x4011 or may@secaucus.bccls.org

As always, we appreciate your participation, patronage and support, which is so crucial to a vital and flourishing library.

Sincerely,

Karyn Lusskin, President
